Dear Santa:

Do you know what I would like for Christmas. I would like to have a snow suit. Do you think you could bring it to me? What would you like to have for Christmas? Santa would you try to bring me a dolly that ~~has~~^{was} its pants? These dolls are rubber. I know a girl who does not believe in you. And it was Christmas Eve. And she stayed up that night. All at once a knock came at the door. She went to the door can you guess who it was. It was you and you ~~turned~~ right around and went away. And then she went to bed. When she got up she had two ashes and six sticks. A girl in my room told me that. I do ~~not~~ know the girl. Do you remember the little boy that said he was going too but you some gloves white ones too.

Well I must say good-bye.

~~I have to go to school now~~
~~and I can't write to you~~
~~any more~~

Good-bye Santa Much Love
Your Little Friend

P.S. What store are you at now?

And don't forget me on Christmas Eve.

I will be nine years old Jan. 5.
